About

A self-motivated and aspiring Business Analyst. Also, flair for grasping new industry-oriented skills & looking forward to bridge technology & business. From business cases to real-time data challenges, I'm fascinated by how technology can unlock smarter strategies and better decisions. I thrive on solving problems, learning new tools, and making data make sense. I bring curiosity, adaptability, and a growth mindset — ready to contribute, collaborate, and make an impact wherever I go.
